Drinkin' Wine
Sonny Terry & Brownie McGhee < Stick McGhee

Stick did this song in F, Sonny & Brownie do it in G (although his guitar is capoed at the 3rd fret, so he's basically playing E - A - B again). I'd suggest playing it either in E, or in G either with the capo or using a barre chord + a 7th or 9th for the IV & V (which in G would be C7/C9 and D7/D9). Regardless of how you choose to do it, the chords are still I - IV - V, and will be marked as such below.

I

Some buys a fifth & some buys a quart - When you buy sherry now you're doin' things smart[1]

      Ref.

[1] Personally, I think it's much more logical to sing "But when you buy it by the gallon you're doin' things smart" ... since the line is talking about the volume purchased .... but that's a personal interpretation.
