

Ask Me No Questions B.B. King

I added this song for two reasons: 1. the progression played in the intro & verse is used in MANY blues songs, and 2. the bridge shows another common way to break up a I-IV-V, namely add the II somewhere in the progression.

This is also a good song for practicing using the moving 7th & 9th shapes we've talked about, as by doing so you can play all of the chords in the space of 5 frets (which makes changing it into different keys much easier). You can mix and match these to taste, but if you get these down it'll spice up your blues rhythm playing.

A7 - 5th Fret	F#7 - 7th Fret	Bm - 7th Fret	E7 - 5th Fret	D7 - 3rd Fret
 A7 5 fr 3 2 4 1	 X X 3 2 4 1	 Bm 7 fr. www.GuitarScales.info 3 2 4 1	 X X 3 2 4 1	 X X 3 2 4 1

F7 - 6th Fret	F#9 - 9th Fret	F9 - 8th Fret	E9 - 7th Fret	D9 - 5th Fret
 X X 3 2 4 1	 1 2 3	 1 2 3	 1 2 3	 1 2 3

You'll also note that turnaround are easier to play more quickly if you don't have to move your hand around a lot.

Intro: A7 > F#7 > Bm > E7 > A + turnaround

A7
You go out when you get ready
D7 F7
And you come home when you please
A7 F#7
You just love me when you want me baby
Bm E7 A7 [+ A7 > D7 > A7 > E7 turnaround!]
And you think it outta be all right with me

When I try to talk to you baby
And let you know just how I feel
You tell me if I don't like it
You know someone else will

D7
Oh, but I done got wise to you baby
A
You're not the only bird in the sky
B7
Oh so don't ask me no questions now baby
E7
And I, I won't tell you no lies

Because I like to feel arms around me
And lips close, close to mine
So I don't have to beg you to love me
I don't have to beg you all the time

Solo

Oh, but I done got wise to you baby
You're not the only bird in the sky
So now don't ask me no questions baby
And you know I won't, I won't tell you no lies

Yes you can love me if you want me
Or you keep on playing the field
Because I know if you don't love me
I know there's somebody else that will
